

Silgero leads parade of 700 rollers

(10/7/2018)

The Monday Mixed League provided plenty of strike action with the three top scores this week being rolled there. Jacob Silgero was the top gun by opening league play with a tremendous 278 game and then following with a 266 individual. In both games the sixth frame was the only non-strike frame when he generated 22 out of a possible 24 strikes. He finished with a 220 game and a total of 29 strikes in the three games for a 764 total to earn the weekly honors.

Gary Hatter Jr. and Tom Crowe had a close battle for the second high score, with each rolling 24 strikes in their series. Hatter Jr. rolled individual games of 258, 220 and 257 for a 735 set. Crowe has surpassed the 700 mark for three consecutive weeks with this week's games of 239, 214 and 279 contributing toward a 732 total.

T.J. Mooney led the Sundowner League with the fourth 700 for the week with games of 255, 278 and 188 totaling 721.

Other bowlers breaking the 250-650 mark were Tamarcus Bennett (688), Mike Stacy (264-676), Sterling Kocian (669), Steve Dickinson (666), Scott Snow (265-662), Harvey Hernandez (255-660), Matthew Flores (658), Jerry Cano (653), Joey Matson (268), Sam Chambers (264) and Miles Michalec (252).

The ladies also had a good week on the lanes with several 600 sets being posted. Sharon Guinn was the top scorer for the week during Monday Mixed action with a nice 619 series. She rolled individual games of 204, 182 and 233 for a 619 total.

Christine Speer rolled the second high total with a great 253 high game leading the way to a 614 during Sundowner action. JoAnna McNary with a 234-613 and Janet Sims with a 224-606 also broke the 600 mark.

Nice individual games were rolled by Pat Robles 225 and Ida Caballero 221.

Hall of Fame inductees

PBA champions Patrick Allen (New York) and Mika Koivuniemi (Finland) have been elected into the PBA Hall of Fame along with veteran bowling journalist Bob Johnson (Las Vegas) and long-time tournament host from Indianapolis Jim Doty for meritorious service. They will be inducted as part of the PBA HOF Classic Tournament, which will be held in Arlington, Texas. The tournament finals will be telecast on Fox Sports 1 at noon on Jan. 6.

Williams tops Duke

In a battle of long time PBA Hall of Famers, Walter Ray Williams Jr. defeated top seed Norm Duke 259-237 to win the PBA50 Storm Invitational. Duke opened the door for Williams Jr. when he missed the nine pin in the fifth frame. Williams Jr. is the all-time PBA and PBA50 titles winner with 47 PBA titles and 11 PBA50 (senior) titles. Duke is third on the all-time PBA titles list with 38 and also has five PBA50 titles.
