

Stacy emerges as high bowler (11.16.2023)

Mike Stacy was able to move past Dolee Knowlan during Monday Mixed League competition to claim the weekly high series honors. It had been a while since Stacy last earned the headline, but he had a good strike carry Monday night to lead all bowlers. He was able to produce individual games of 240, 257, and 234 for a very nice 731 set. He had only one open frame, which came in the third game, in a 26-strike performance for the night.

Knowlan started league play with a double before hanging the 7 pin for a spare and then stringing 8 strikes in a row and nine for a great opening game of 278. He followed with individuals of 234 and 204 for a 716. He had two open frames in the set and rolled 24 strikes.

Justin Shoup led the Thursday Sundowners League with a 257 high game contributing towards a 682 for third high. Other bowlers breaking the 250-650 mark were T.J. Mooney (249-681/678), Robert Mejia (669), Cody Hammack (256-667), Anthony Adames (266-657), Steve Dickinson (654), Larry Hall (653), Rob Lyman (652), Wyatt Klekar (263-652), Dante Catalanotto (652), Brandon Olson (652), Gary Hatter Jr. (650), Danny Reissig (259), Joshua Benavides (258), Chris Garbe (251), and Cody Reeves (250). Senior bowler Leonard Malina opened league play with a nice 245 individual game.

Lynda Mikulec set the pace last Thursday night with a 606 series to lead the ladies scoring. She posted individuals of 187, 202, and 217 for her total.

Kayla Shaffer had a slow start in Monday Mixed action but was able to find a good line the third game to roll a great 256 closing game and finish with a 602 series.

Other nice scores for the women were Chris Guerra 207-579 and Sharon Guinn 207-577.

Vera Cruz Restaurant bowlers for the week are Lynda Mikulec 738 (Sundowners) and DoLee Knowlan 785 (Monday Mixed).

Three Saturday Youth bowlers broke the 600 mark with Dylan Benavides leading the way with a 236-639. Nathan McLain rolled the second high set with 246-633 and Evan Dunn posted a 221-616.
